

Eric Henry Pell

Eric Henry Pell was born in Flawborough in Nottinghamshire in 1895.

In 1911, Eric the middle son of the three Pell brothers, who all served in the First World War, was living at Holme House with his parents, elder brother Joseph William aged 14, who was working on the family farm, younger brother Harold Whitt aged 13 years and still at school and sister Mary Elizabeth Hilary aged 7 years.

Eric enlisted as a private with the 11th Hussars on the 15th November 1915, was promoted to Sergeant, and by the 17th April 1916 he had been commissioned and ended the war as a Lieutenant.

He was gassed during the war and afterwards returned to continue working for his father on the family farm. In June 1920 he married Adelaine Elnor of Gamston. Their son William John Elnor Pell was born in 1923 and he married Winifred Oliver on 27th July 1972.

Eric Henry Pell died at Stonehouse Farm in Flawborough on 5th November 1950 aged 55 years.

Notts. Farmer's Death

The death occurred at the week-end of Mr. Eric H. Pell, a well-known Notts. farmer, of Flawborough. Mr. Pell, 55 years old, was the son of the late Mr. W. H. Pell, of Holme House, Holme Pierrepont.

Mr. Pell was chairman of the council of Notts. Agricultural Society, president this year of the Flintham Ploughing Association, and he had been a member of Bingham Rural Council for upwards of a quarter of a century. He was a member of the South Notts. branch of the N.F.U., a former member of Notts. County Council.

Mr. E. H. Pell.

A widow and one son are left. The funeral will take place at Flawborough on Thursday.

Nottingham Evening Post 7th November 1950