freehand theatre

A playful and musical interpretation of a well-known tale – with porridge and bears and one-two-three chairs.

A tale that's not too BIG and not too small but just right.

So you think you know this story? Well, take it from us, it's not so easy to tell when it's wintertime and the bears won't wake up –

Zzzzzzzz what do bears dream about?

But spring in the air puts a spring in all our steps and one little girl with golden hair is always a step ahead. And when a small bear gets lost, we all have to go on a bear hunt!

Using beautiful visual effects, inventive puppetry and original music, Freehand Theatre has created a play of special magic with young children in mind.

"Freehand Theatre's superb creations are a joy to see. They provide real and effective theatre."
